

Structure Protection at White Wolf Lodge and Campground

Thinning and chipping helped create a safety zone for the White Wolf Lodge Concession.

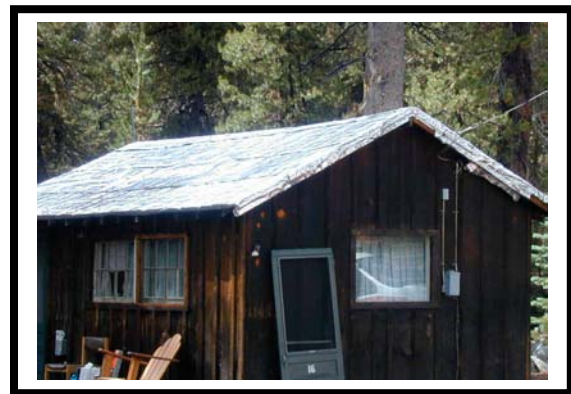

As a precautionary measure, portable water tanks were placed in strategic locations throughout the concession grounds

Fire engines were staged in locations specified by the Structural Protection Plan

Hoselay was placed around the entire perimeter of the lodge, campground, and employee housing

Not a structure went unnoticed – vulnerable roofs were wrapped with fire resistant protective material